Apparently, defending state champion Concord-Carlisle wasn't ready to give up its crown.

Despite staring at a three-goal deficit in the second half, the top-seeded Patriots [team stats] pulled out a 4-3 stunner over No. 4 Masconomet in a Division 2 North boys semifinal yesterday.

Senior forward Mike Burke netted a hat trick in the second half to complete the victory for C-C (19-0-2). The Dual County League leading scorer notched the last goal with less than two minutes to play, breaking a school record for the most goals in a season with 20.
