Burke goes wild in C-C victory

The Lowell Sun
Article Last Updated: 11/11/2007 06:42:11 AM EST

LOWELL -- Welcome back, Mike Burke. What a return!

The Concord-Carlisle High senior forward, playing his first tourney game after suffering a concussion in the next-to-last regular season contest, scored 3 second-half goals in the final 19 minutes to spark the reigning Division 2 state champion Patriots to an improbable come-from-behind 4-3 win over Masconomet Regional of Topsfield in their MIAA North Sectional semifinal yesterday afternoon at Cawley Stadium.

Undefeated top seed C-C, improving to 19-0-2 this fall and stretching its 2-year unbeaten string to 31 games (28-0-3), fell behind 3-0 in the first half before regrouping in a big way.

Rob Schmidt-Chang got one back before the half ended, making it 3-1, and then Burke took over with his 17th, 18th and 19th goals of the season.

His first was assisted by Schmidt-Chang at 21:06, and the tying tally at 32:04 was unassisted.

"Mike's second goal was a tremendous play," said Patriots head coach Ray Pavlik. "The ball was volleyed about 25 yards and he one-touched it out of the air to the upper corner of their net. It was an absolute rope."

The game-winner at 38:08, with just 1:52 left in regulation, was set up by Tony Lania.

"Mike beat a defender and slipped it into the net just inside the near post," said Pavlik.

C-C keeper James Smith finished with 2 saves.

Also playing well and lauded by Pavlik for their efforts were midfielders Theo Terris and Tony Meyer, along with stopper Ryan Miller.
